

Community Meet and Greet with the Gay & Lesbian Liaison Unit of the D.C. Police

What: An informal event to meet and to talk with officers of the Metropolitan Police Department who recently joined the Gay & Lesbian Liaison Unit as affiliate members. These officers work all over the District – come meet the members who patrol your neighborhood.

Why: Good relationships with these officers will help ensure members of our community receive respectful and knowledgeable police response when we need it.

When: March 25th, 2010, 6pm – 8pm

Where: The DC Center, 1810 14th St. NW

Sponsored by the Rainbow Response Coalition and Gays and Lesbians Opposing Violence (GLOV). The Rainbow Response Coalition works to eradicate intimate partner violence in the LGBTQ communities. GLOV works to address hate violence against the members and perceived members of the LGBTQ communities.
